

Zurfluh Promoted to Fill New Role in Mortgage Division at Blackhawk Bank

ROCKFORD, IL (April 28, 2008) – As a continued effort to provide a positive sales experience for its customers, Blackhawk Bank has created and filled a new position within their mortgage division. Tammy Zurfluh, an Illinois mortgage lender of more than 18 years, has been promoted to Vice President & Sales Manager of the Mortgage Division at Blackhawk Bank.

“She has built an extensive network of clients through her dedication to truly unparalleled client service resulting in repeat clients and word of mouth referrals,” said Dave Adkins, Senior Vice President, Consumer Banking, Blackhawk Bank. “This is terrific news for our customers as well as the Bank, which both will benefit as a whole from Tammy’s sales strength.”

Zurfluh has been with Blackhawk Bank for seven years and is the Bank’s top mortgage sales executive. In her expanded role, Zurfluh will implement and oversee best practices that she’s developed throughout her career. She will work as the liaison between the loan originators and Blackhawk Bank to enhance the client’s experience through the mortgage process. Zurfluh’s previous roles include Mortgage Originator, and most recently Assistant Vice President. She will continue to serve her clients from the Belvidere office in addition to her management duties.

Blackhawk Bank operates seven banking centers in Beloit, WI; Roscoe; Machesney Park, Rockford, Belvidere and Capron, IL. A second Rockford banking center is slated to open in the fall of this year. For more information about the bank, log onto www.blackhawbank.com.
